Relevant Skills:

- Planning and Organization: While studying and pursuing LL.B., the course taught me to plan and organise my work in a systematic way and helped me to manage time efficiently. It made me detailed oriented to exercise independent judgment and to be proactive.
- Communication: Assisting Attorneys in preparing briefs, letters, agreements, petitions etc... honed my written communication skills and drafting documents improved my legal writing skills. Presentations, holding conferences and taking instructions from clients helped me sharpen my oratory skills along with negotiation skills.
- Teamwork: Working in teams during my post-graduate studies helped me become a constructive team member and contributing practically to the success of the team.
- Adaptability: Having seen the difference between the work culture in litigation, legal process outsourcing and academics has helped me to manage change effectively and to be more adaptable to different work culture and environments.
