Against 80 vacancies the ST quota comes 07 vacancies. However, these ST vacancies were not considered for promotion even though there are available eligible ST candidates.
- (ii) During the DPC proceedings for the year panel year 2015-16, the 8th Roster point earmarked for STs which was carry forward as backlog vacancy for ST one Smt. Nirajakshi was considered and not promoted due to non having foundation training. Similarly, one K. Sammaiah was considered for promotion against panel year 2018-19 and he was also not promoted and these vacancies were filled up from general category.
- (iii) A supplementary DPC was conducted on 31.08.2016 to fill up 10 vacancies for the post of Section Officer. But no ST candidates were considered and promoted even though there were 6 clear cut ST vacancies and availability of eligible ST candidates.
- (iv) Another DPC was held on 26.01.2017 and in which no ST candidates were considered as against 7 backlog ST vacancies.
- (v) Again a DPC was conducted on 30.08.2019 to fill up 98 vacancies of Section officers and out of which only, 5 ST candidates were considered and promoted as against current reservation and 07 ST backlog vacancies of panel year 2015-16.

- (vii) The Govt. of Telangana has violated the rule of own merit promotion policy which stated that those reserved candidates promoted against unreserved vacancies, should not be counted against reservation point.
