Smt. V. Dimgohching (W/o Late V. Nangthanlian) New Delhi vide representation dated 12.03.2024 has alleged that her husband (Late V. She has requested to look in to the matter and to release of Ex- Gratia Amount i.e One Crore Rupees as decided by GNCTD during COVID-19.

2. NCST took up the matter with the concerned department of GNCTD and there was no fruitful result, hence a sitting was convened on 10.09.2024 at NCST. The Chief Minister of Delhi has sought some clarification before taking further action in the case. He assured that Department is working diligently to expedite the case for disbursement of ex-Gratia in favour of Smt. V. Dimgohching.

7. The Commission expresses concern over the continued non-disbursal of the ex-gratia amount to Smt. V. Dimgohching, despite clear recommendations and assurances provided during the sitting on 10.09.2024. It is evident that the delay in processing the payment is entirely attributable to the administrative inaction and lack of coordination among the concerned departments, and not due to any fault of the petitioner. The Commission strongly urges immediate resolution and the release of the ex-gratia payment with interest without further delay.

8. After discussion with the officer and petitioner, the following was recommended and an Action taken report to be submitted by Department of Revenue, Govt of Delhi within 15 days of receipt of minutes.

- The Department of Revenue, GNCTD may process the case at the earliest as assured by DC (HQ)-II. This will help the family of Ex employee of Delhi Government.
