agencies and proportion of the STs in the dealership. He also pointed out that in some cases it is found that the agency is in the name of tribal person but actually it is run by some other people and tribal is not getting share in the profit of the business which should be checked by the officials and STs should get the benefit of the business. Constant monitoring is utmost required to safeguard the interest of the STs. STs don't have the marketing skills for which they should be given proper training so that they may survive in the business.

1.3 The suggestion of Hon'ble Member was accepted by them and they assured that any discrepancy found will be corrected by the officials, however, they pointed out that the marketing office of Ahmedabad in the main office of Marketing Division in Gujarat and the system of providing agencies, criteria, policy etc. are being observed and carried out by that office. A meeting of Hon'ble Member should be arranged at Ahmedabad Marketing Division. Meeting ended with thanks.
